

SARAH DESJARDINS

Objective

Hello! I am a designer with a fine arts background. I am in search of a position where my artistic perspective and keen design sense could flourish and contribute to the company's successes. As a hard-worker, in both leading and learning capacities, I look forward to a fresh start with an engaging and ambitious creative team; perhaps yours?

Software Proficiency

Interests

painting / hiking / road trips farmers markets / moscow mules classic movies / running / cooking mid-century modern design reading / food shows / kayaking gardening / photography

Education

- > Rhode Island School of Design | Continuing Education Certificate in Advertising Design 2013—2015
- > Montserrat College of Art 2005—2009
Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree with a Concentration in Painting

Selected Work Experience

- > Studio Hop Jun 2009 – present
Assistant Manager

Studio Hop is a locally owned, small fine arts and fine crafts gallery located in Providence, RI. This gallery store is a showcase for over 80 local artists' work, vintage furniture, and vintage jewelry. My duties include the daily running of the store, customer service, inventory, curating, training and delegating to other employees, marketing, and event planning.

- > Freelance Designer + Artist

From a young age, I have been putting my art and design out into the world. My freelance work has included painting commissions, album cover designs, invitations, and, most recently, a website design. With every project, no matter the medium, I meet with the client, take on their ideas, and apply my design to come to a perfectly balanced, harmonious end. I love the challenge of freelance work, and look forward to expanding my portfolio further with these unique and gratifying projects.

Professional Skills

Creative Thinker

Highly Organized

Optimistic

Communicative

- > 16 Ruggles Street, Attleboro, MA 02703
- > 508-272-6925
- > snoel1002@yahoo.com
- > sngd-design.com